

Welcome to my inspiration flowers in our hair the grass is growing high this summer there's something in the air

But I lied when I tried and I always seem to hesitate

Could this remind you of the sixties or am I making a mistake?
I mean one guitar a bass and a drummer that's really all it takes

But I lied when I tried
and I always seem to hesitate

Something's wrong
inside my heart
in the name of glory
she don't care too much for moonlight sun

Peace and love and understanding could make you feel so free psychedelic vision baby could be reality

But I lied when I tried
and I always seem to hesitate

inside my heart
in the name of glory
she don't care too much for moonlight sun
