

New Generation

Dizzy Wright

Independent, sold out shows, and I don't think that's changing!
My fans say they wanna see me turn it up, and I can't leave you all hangin'
About that life, who came to see me rock this crowd? Damn, I must be famous
Came so far and it feels so amazing, and now we dealing with a new generatio

Niggas getting live in the back
The left side of the map, got niggas tryin' do rap
Been around the whole world once and I'm back
And I'm plottin' on how to do laps
Dropped and see how they react
Even though it's world peace until the whole world collapse
And now we dealing with a generation gap
No commercial, I'm a little too thug for that
But it's ... up season to the max, straight out the trap
Get it jumping for show, pay ten racks for a show
Reminiscent on the days when I used to come for the low
Came up, now I'm ... blow
Shit, my feelings the fuel to my rocket
I won a million before you know I got it
She got a man but she gonna drop it, she so out of pocket!

I'm on my grind and I'm tired, they blaze with us to get higher
These Vegas niggas on fire, now these promoters throw us on flights
Was it make them tell, if you step to a king
Man, you brave as hell, who gonnna try it?
You niggas late as hell
My bitch booty look like K. Michelle, and I'm feeling this fire!
That these

You niggas confused, and I noticed it
So I stay in my lane while I'm rolling it
It's a shame, you fuck with my older shit
Well, now the world can't see who I been growing with
I've came so far, niggas can't even get over it
No way no one is ignoring it
So move it, my homies in foreign countries
Found the weed before we went exploring it
This talent is what I was born with
Took about twenty years before I was touring it
Do you like it? Cause it's the first time you... it
Just wait 'til you see me performing it
I'm so live on the stage cause I smoke and I rage
And I jump on the crowd like I'm Method Man
So I'm puffin and rapping my verse on they hands
So I didn't hope that I never land
See a lot of niggas that I'm better than
In my FV letterman, on a plane
Headed somewhere I ain't never been Always on the move, I don't settle in Coming for the mother fucking throne
In a crazy city known to let the devil in Every time he knock knock knock, girls let him in Gotta dumb it down to stay two steps ahead of them, call me competitive
But I still got what you was trying to be, a clone
Now I'm pulling up the-
