

The Flavor

Dizzy Wright

[Hook: Dizzy Wright]

Who's bringing the flavor to your ear?
Which one of you ladies gon' make it disappear?
Who got the ganja? You know me, the time's near
You niggas had a chance, now we takin' it from here
Funk Volume...
Who's bringing the flavor to your ear?
Which one of you ladies gon' make it disappear?
Who got the ganja? You know me, the time's near
You niggas had a chance, now we takin' it from here
Funk Volume...

[Verse 1: Dizzy Wright]

Somebody should've told 'em I was next
The nigga disrespected, I had to hold him by his neck
Sometimes these niggas need to be put in check
See, sometimes these niggas can't comprehend respect
They say I'm out of line, but you niggas is not around
How you scorin' points when you standin' out of bounds?
In other words, how you gettin' money and you ain't keeping it real?
With no skills, playin' the field like you not a clown
I guess somebody should put the target on the fans
Support the bullshit and you a part of the scam
The million-man march, my granddaddy sellin' grams
Learned the game from a pimp (he just becoming a man, goddamn)
Tattoos all over my dark skin
I ain't trippin', I'm buildin' on small wins
I know myself, so I told myself "I'm all in"
For the record and the cars we just evolvin'

[Hook: Dizzy Wright]

[Verse 2: SwizZz]

It's no coincidence they nervous when they see us comin'
I'll kick down your door and put an end to your fuckin' function
I ain't tryna make friends with all these rap niggas
I'd rather get tea-bagged on top of cat litter
The only thing I fear is idle time...
So I'm back on my grizzly with the Valley state of mind
I put my all into this motherfuckin' game...
And learn from every loss, so when I lose, it's still a gain
Dizzy, these frauds are lame □ it's obvious, but it's unaddressed
It's sad, the fans got accustomed to accept the less
I can see the clear picture even from the upper decks
So I dumb it down to make it easy for these fools to connect
We're bringin' that funky flavor, that new major
F-U-N-K-V-O-L-U-M-E spells danger
To all you pussy-footin' rappers come and hear me out
FV is that... something like a mouse

[Hook: Dizzy Wright]
