

For Once in My Life

DJ Bobo

Alone in my own world, surrounded by walls
I can't take this feeling no more
Patiently waiting for signs and for calls
Give me strength and faith to open that door

I hold on, don't let go
I'll take my heart in my hands 'cause I know

For once in my life
I feel like a hero
For once in my life
This will be my own show
For once in my life
The magic runs through me
For once in my life

I walk through the curtain, glamour appears
The moment of truth is right here
Open my box, filled with laughter and tears
I sense that the magic is near

Here I am, standing tall
I don't wanna give up, want it all
Here I stand, brave and strong
The arena is where I belong

I just wanna live this dream forever
I just wanna live this dream with you
I just wanna live this dream forever
I just wanna live this dream with you
