

This ship is a ghost
Called the "Restless Bark"
Sailing in the dark
Forever and ever
This ship is a ghost
Bears a mystic tragedy
So lost in misery
The spirits of a hundred years

The seasons come, the seasons go
And we are on our journey to the island of "garunga"
"Garunga"
A mystic place, no time no face
A legendary land in the middle of the ocean

It's like an endless nightmare
A journey to no man's land, vanished down in the sand

We're restless ghosts, damned to live
There will be no escape before we find the treasure island
"Garunga"
The price we pay, we fade to grey Punished for our sins, we are searching more then hundred years

Once upon time in a dark deep night
The legend begun with a historical fight
We've entered a ship, no one on board
Just a treasure chest with a plan was our reward
We followed the course showed on the map
The way changed everyday - we got trapped
We're searching "garunga" 'till the end of our time
We sail and suffer for our life of crime
