

GOOD LIFE

DJ Bobo

It's gonna be a good life.
lets raise the roof,
You're gonna come with me,
No time to cool out.
Everybody can't be the way you wanna be,
So now we sing it loud!

I'm gonna rock your body, shake that thing,
No time to take a break.
Party people in the house,
Let me hear you sing,
'till now you stayed away.

I want you baby!
You drive me wild, I go crazy!

It's gonna be a good life
We dancing 'till the morning light
It's gonna be a good life.
Everything is gonna be all right,
It's gonna be a good life.

It's gonna be a good good good life.

Just wave your hand from side to side,
Want you to scream and shout!
Everybody be wild, be electrified,
I'm here to knock you out.

Let me take you there,
Lets loose control,
Want you to go insane,
Tonight's the night, lets let it roll,
I'm here to burn the flame.

I good life, oh, yeah,
I feel the power is in the air.
I good life, oh, yeah,
I feel the power is in the air.

It's gonna be a goo, good love.
I wanna rock your body tonight!
It's gonna be a good, good life,
I want to hold your body tight.
I wanna jump up the party,
I wanna scream out the party, I wanna.
