

Love Is All Around

DJ Bobo

Love is all around, love is all around, love is all around.
Love is all around, everywhere you look; love is all around!
See it in the eyes of a mother and her child,
See it in the eyes of a friend;
Love is all around, love is all around, love is all around!

My heart's starts boom, my arms feels weak,
My head is exploding everyday of the week,
I can't eat, I can't sleep,
'cause your body's so sweet,
Put your hand to my heart, then you feel the beat,
You're the wonderful girl with that sexual healing,
When I hold your hand, then I get this feeling,
You're the only one; feel so proud,
Sweet, sweet girl, your love is all around.

I'm dancing and I feel like flying,
Then I see this girl, she is crying,
I take her in my arms; it's like a dream,
The most beautiful girl in the world, that I've seen,
Look up to me; I see it in your eyes:
The moment of truth, no more lies,
It's love, love at the first sight,
Like heaven on earth; it's shining bright!!!
