Moscow

When the rain falls down in Moscow

When I'm all alone in Moscow

I am thinking of you

Wish the sky would be blue

Ladadi dadada

Ladadi dadada

Ladadi dadada

Ladadi dadada

I'm living far away

In darkness every day

I'll never forget your smile

I miss your style

How can I go ahead

I need you I am sad

And I'm still running around

In a Russian town

I hear you call my name

There's still a burning flame

I wanna let you know

I miss you so

I never felt this way

And I don't wanna stay

But I'm still running around

In a Russian town
