Brand New Funk

DJ Jazzy Jeff & The Fresh Prince

It's new, it's out of the ordinary It's rather extrordinary, so yo bust this commentary
A literary, genius, and a superior beat creator have come together, and we made a musical composition which we think is a remedy to cure all the dance floors that's empty You wanna dance? We got what you want Jazzy Jeff and Fresh Prince bustin out with the brand new funk

It was kind of an accident, the way that it happened
One day I was rappin, and on the beat, Jeff was backin me up
And all of a sudden, he brought in a cut
And I dropped my microphone and said, "What the...?
Hold up, Jeff, wait a minute, play it"
He just smiled and said, "Yeah def ain't it?"
It was {funky} it made wanna {get, get down!}
And we knew almost at once it was the {brand new funk}
So we continued to listen to it
And we knew it was def when I started rappin to it So I gave a hi-five to Jeff and without hesitation popped in my cassette
I took it home that night, and analyzed it Rewound the tape over and over, and memorized it
That Friday, we went to the club
And out and out cold tore it up!
You shoulda seen the people dancin and shakin and movin and jumpin and spinnin and clappin, while the beatboxin was groovin and screamin and yellin while on the microphone I was flowin Fresh rhymes I was showin, the people say, "Yo keep goin"
So I continued to rock, while Jeff was on the beatbox Special assistance from my homeboy Ready Rock People barged just to get up front to get a bird's eye view of what we call the brand new funk

Yo Jeff! {Rock the beat}
Yo Jeff! {Rock the beat}

Yo Jeff! {Rock the beat}
Yo Jeff! {Rock the beat}
Yo Jeff! {Rock the beat with your hands..}

Now get funky with the beat!
Now turn it all around!

The most original, amazing, astounding, miraculous remarkable, startling, sensational, stupendous music, that has ever been created is ours - but believe me it was complicated
But we have done it, so now we can breathe a long awaited sigh of relief
This isn't a publicity stunt It's the raw untouched, pure, hard brand new funk!

{Rock the beat}
