

Step into the eye of the tornado,
I'll keep you safe from harm
You don't have a thing to be afraid of
I'll protect you from the storm.
Step into the eye of the tornado,
I'll keep you safe from harm.

So you're hurt and you're cold,
You're lost in the earth searching for home
And you want and you know
You're caught in the turn but the world keeps fading around, around around...

I'll keep you safe from harm.
I'll keep you safe from harm.
Step into the eye of the tornado.
I'll keep you safe from harm.
Step into the eye of the tornado.

Step into the eye of the tornado,
I'll keep you safe from harm
You don't have a thing to be afraid of
I'll protect you from the storm.

I'll keep you safe from harm.
I'll keep you safe from harm.

Step into the eye of the tornado.
I'll keep you safe from harm.
Step into the eye of the tornado.

Step into the eye of the tornado,
I'll keep you safe from harm
You don't have a thing to be afraid of
I'll protect you from the storm
