

Sometimes

DMX

Sometimes I wonder what life's about
Sometimes I wonder while the lights are out
Sometimes I wonder why I like to shout
Sometimes I wonder what the lies are about
Sometimes I see things I shouldn't have seen
Sometimes I wonder why I'm a hood and a fein
Sometimes I look at what I have become and cry
Sometimes I get on that bullshit and be ready to die
Sometimes a nigga thats your man may get it
Sometimes even if it was sweet, if you aint wit it
Sometimes the pain's too much to bear
Sometimes it rains too much to care
Sometimes if you don't watch yo back it'll cost you
Sometimes you wonder who would give a FUCK if they lost you
Yet sometimes the sun shines around the cloud
But sometimes it's dark and hell is hot
