Tom Dooley

Doc Watson

Hang your head, Tom Dooley Hang your head and cry You killed poor Laurie Foster And you know you're bound to die

You left her by the roadside Where you begged to be excused You left her by the roadside Then you hid her clothes and shoes

Hang your head, Tom Dooley Hang your head and cry You killed poor Laurie Foster And you know you're bound to die

You took her on the hillside For to make her your wife You took her on the hillside And there you took her life

You dug the grave four feet long And you dug it three feet deep You rolled the cold clay over her And tromped it with your feet

Hang your head, Tom Dooley Hang your head and cry You killed poor Laurie Foster And you know you're bound to die

Trouble, oh it's trouble A-rollin' through my breast As long as I'm a-livin', boys They ain't a-gonna let me rest

I know they're gonna hang me Tomorrow I'll be dead Though I never even harmed a hair On poor little Laurie's head

Hang your head, Tom Dooley Hang your head and cry You killed poor Laurie Foster And you know you're bound to die

In this world and one more Then reckon where I'll be If is wasn't for Sheriff Grayson I'd be in Tennessee

You can take down my old violin And play it all you please For at this time tomorrow, boys It'll be of no use to me

Hang your head, Tom Dooley Hang your head and cry You killed poor Laurie Foster And you know you're bound to die

At this time tomorrow Where do you reckon I'll be? Away down yonder in the holler Hangin' on a white oak tree

Hang your head, Tom Dooley Hang your head and cry You killed poor Laurie Foster And you know you're bound to die
