

we're undivided but undecided

I got questions, is that all there is?
Like how much more blood can a stone give?
if you squeeze it enough there's been reason enough to take the good with the tough times joy to the rough times shit used to be knit tighter than cashmere how did it get all where do we go from here? just know you're my heart but I've gotta confess I'm thinking we should give it a rest we're undivided (I love you to death!) but undecided

I'm staying open to just about anything but more changes and the song remains the same approaching the next chapter with laughter hoping for the best but preparing for disaster have to self preserve, self pretend, self medicate you adapt and matriculate to the current situation compromise slide thru complications in our relations you say you're confused boo well boy I'm confused too I'm down for anything in the world involving you baby make up your mind and tell me what you wanna do?

Cause I already made my decision about you

We stay positional even when it's critical I got your back and that's unconditional always been together - done it all whatever, we could make this last forever do what you gotta do it's a crazy world and I'll take my chances with you!
