Dog Is Dead

Raise your head towards the sky
Prize every time
One excuse to hold you tight

But two roman candles in disguise
Who would recognise us?
Two explosions in the night

Can't stop what I started
And I'm never gonna forget it
I took the pill took the poison
I'm forever gonna regret it

And you need to understand
That I'm a brand new man and I
Played the cards as best I can
It could've be easy, no it could've be easy

Killer jokes with rotten lines
Prize every time
Dirty bus stop pantomime
You joined a loveless picket line
Chance of a lifetime
One excuse to hold you tight

Got a bunch of voices
Telling me to shape up
Took a pill I took the poison
And I call you if I wake up

And you need to understand
I'm a brand new man and I
Played the cards as best I can
Well it could've been easy,
oh it could've been easy

Stop what I started and I'm never gonna forget it
Took the pill took the poison
And I'm never gonna regret it

And you need to understand
I'm a brand new man and I
I played the cards as best I could
Well it could've been easy,
Oh, it could've been easy
Oh, it could've been easy
Oh, it could've been so easy
