

A Hope Unseen

Dogwood

Inhabitants of the earth a good news day.
I've got much to say without pain.
I bring hope to you for always.
If we hope for what we do not see we wait.
Oh how earnestly.
Perseverance, ever so near it, waiting patiently.
My hope, my promise.
You said You'd always be here,
no matter what we've done and all the times we fail.
You said You would deliver us.
Not long, until our hope is revealed,
I'll keep waiting here for You.
Hope that is seen is not a hope at all.
Why would one still hope for what he sees?
We must wait to be revealed.
My hope, my promise.
You said You'd always be here,
no matter what we've done and all the times we fail.
You said You would deliver us.
