Doja Cat

I click I don't want you
Like it's whatever
Sh*t it ain't a thing
When really I wanna flaunt you
You really need a queen
So be a, be a king

Anything you know, you might have every idea
Anything you know, you might have every idea
Anything you know, you might have every idea
Anything you know, you might have every idea

I'm not under your control
Baby you ain't got the whole, no
I'm not under your control,
Baby you ain't got the whole

Anything you know, you might have every idea
Anything you know, you might have every idea
Anything you know, you might have every idea
Anything you know, you might have every idea
