

Hard to Believe

Dokken

In the middle of the night you know I heard the voices call said they'd try to ease me through my pain then I started to question am I sane or confused don't think that I will ever know

It's hard to believe that the sun still sets without you
I was so afraid to let you know
It's hard to believe that the world still turns without you
I was so afraid to let you go

I was starting to believe that I was destined for the worst It was all the life I'd ever know It was getting to the point that I'd thought I'd not return I was so unsure of where I'd go

It's hard to believe
that the sun still sets without you
I was so afraid to let you know
It's hard to believe
that the world still turns without you
I was so afraid to let you go

In the middle of the night sometimes I hear the voices call
don't think that I will ever know

It's hard to believe
that the sun still sets without you
I was so afraid to let you know
It's hard to believe
that the world still turns without you
I was so afraid to let you go
