

I Don't Mind

Dokken

I was lost without you
I was sinking in a storm
I thought the world had left me now I know that I was wrong It's Resurrection Day gonna leave it all behind gonna clear my mind of you gonna pave my own road

I don't mind -what you want
I don't mind when your hounds begin to beg
I don't mind when you
kick the ones that fall
I don't mind - I don't mind at all

It's better to be lonely than to live with all your pain
I was walking through the desert
I was calling out your name but I never got an answer still I loved you just the same the sun began to burn me reminded me of all those days

I don't mind -what you want
hounds begin to beg
I don't mind when you

When you leave me for another I won't be calling out your name now that burning sun is setting

I don't mind -what you want
hounds begin to beg
I don't mind when you
I don't mind - I don't mind
