Long Way Home

Dokken

Sitting in the crossfire all alone
Waiting for a world to show the way
Tried to find a rose without a thorn
Such a foolish notion fades away

(If it's all) in my mind
Then why does it feel
Like there isn't any time

Walk the road (Follow the madness)
Of someone's path
Search for self (Well it doesn't mean you're wrong)
If you can
'cause it's gonna be ('Cause it's gonna be)
A long way home
Wandering through the maze of all the fears
In the mind it makes no sense at all
Tell me not what I'm supposed to do
Crucify you christ without my cross

If it's all in my mind
Then why does it feel
Like I'm running out of time

Walk the road (Follow the madness)
Of someone's path
Search for self (Well it doesn't mean you're wrong)
If you can
'cause it's gonna be ('Cause it's gonna be)
A long way home

Mythical past
Future behind me, shattered
I could not be Someone beside
Take back my soul, my soul

Walk the road (Follow the madness)
Of someone's path
Search for self (Well it doesn't mean you're wrong)
If you can
'cause it's gonna be
A long way home
