Cologne

Dolly Parton

You ask me not to wear cologne She'll know you've been with me alone And you can't take our secret home So you ask me not to wear cologne

You can wipe the make up off The lipstick or a little gloss But fragrance lingers on and on So you ask me not to wear cologne

You leave my bed and go to hers Leaving me alone and hurt I love you whether right or wrong And you ask me not to wear cologne

I'm not out to hurt someone Not you, not her, not any one But I got heartaches of my own Why, I can't even wear cologne

Oh but I never meant for this to be It wasn't in my heart to cheat Love has a nature all it's own So I willingly gave up cologne

And every time you come to me I realize I'm in too deep I know you love us both and I keep holding on You ask me not to wear cologne

You say, "Don't wear cologne"

Oh now what am I ever gonna do Cause I am so in love with you I know you love us both But where do I belong You ask me not to wear cologne

You ask me not to wear cologne She'll know you've been with me alone And you can't take our secret home So you ask me not to wear cologne

How do I walk away from the greatest love I've known You ask me not to wear cologne Oh you ask me not to wear cologne

You ask me not to wear cologne She'll know you've been with me alone And I'm a scent you can't take home But will I ever get to wear cologne
