

Don't Drop Out

Dolly Parton

Am I to face these lonely halls alone
And when you leave, who's gonna walk me home
Cause when you walk out the door I won't see you no more
And you're the one I adore so baby

Don't drop out of my life, baby, don't be a fool
(Don't drop out, baby, don't drop out now)
You're old enough to know you're too young to face the world so
cruel
(Don't drop out, baby, don't drop out now)
You're not prepared to do anything
So if you wanna buy me that diamond ring, well
Don't drop out of my life, baby, don't drop out

My parents say you're lazy but you can be smart if you try
And I know you've got a heart cause you've never ever made me c ry
They say you're no good so baby do what you should
And stay here by my side oh darlin'

Don't drop out of my life, baby, don't be a fool
(Don't drop out, baby, don't drop out now)
You're old enough to know you're too young to face the world so
cruel
(Don't drop out, baby, don't drop out now)
You're not prepared to do anything
So if you wanna buy me that diamond ring, well
Don't drop out of my life, baby, don't drop out

(Don't drop out, baby, don't drop out now)

Don't drop out of my life
Baby, don't drop out
(Don't drop out, baby, don't drop out now)
