

Just Leaving

Dolly Parton

I ain't got no business here
You have made it very clear
So I'm leaving
Leaving this old town

My wings are kinda broken up
But I think I might can patch 'em up
Heaven help me
Lord, you got an angel down

Time and only time can tell
If I'm to find Heaven or Hell
Then I'm leaving
I'm just leaving

I have given all I can
I've tried but you don't understand
So I'm leaving
I'm talking big for someone so small

I know I'll be alright out there
Even so, I'm just a little scared
But that's strictly just between us
And that's all

I'm gonna be alright
I'm going to Paradise
I'm leaving
Just leaving

Time and only time can tell
If I'm to find Heaven or Hell
But I'm leaving
I'm just leaving

My wings are kinda broken up
But I think I might can patch 'em up
Heaven help me
Lord, you've got an angel down

I'm leaving
I'm leaving this old town
Leaving
I'm leaving

Lord, you've an angel down
I'm leaving this old town
I'm just leaving
