My Eyes Can Only See You

me you want me too

Dolly Parton

And I burn with desire through and through
I can't help myself I can't see no one else cause my eyes can o nly see you
My eyes can only see you my eyes can only see you
Your face is always in view for my eyes can only see you
I want you so much and I long for your touch and your eyes tell

When your eyes meet mine my heart beats out of time

Oh it may not be right but I'm too weak to fight and my eyes can only see you
My eyes can only see you...
And my eyes can only see you
