

I'm sitting here - alone with myself
I'm here - feeling and thinking
It is amazing what's happening to me
I'm here and you're by my side

Such a long time ago but you're still in my mind
Seems it never happened to me
Such a long time ago - I must have been blind
My eyes are wide opened to see

I lived my life in trouble and fear
Today no thoughts on tomorrow
The small horizon that I couldn't see
So near but too far away

Such a long time ago but you're still in my mind
Seems I have unlocked every door
Such a long time ago and the visions I've had
Will be never the same no more

Riding the wings of destiny
Gonna throw this life away - (this life away)
You'll get the best of what I've been and I miss you - (I miss you)
I won't forget you night and day
There is nothing left to say - (this life away)
Finally I found a place to go and I miss you

I'm missing you so badly
I keep on missing you

How I miss you

Riding the wings of destiny
Gonna throw this life away - (this life away)
You'll get the best of what I've been and I miss you - (I miss you)
I won't forget you night and day
There is nothing left to say - (this life away)
Finally I found a place to go and I miss you
