

You will be awake before the morning star
Why are you chasing a joy which is so far?
In your flesh and bones, you're standing in this hell
And somehow you know that this will be the end

Will you come tonight?
Will you bleed tonight?
Will you stay alive?
Dive, don't be afraid
Follow the seamaid
Jump, you won't regret

With her voice she can make you starve and please
Faking, lying, seducting and saism
You think she's satisfied but try and grip her neck
You'll be surprised because she won't react

Will you come tonight?
Will you bleed tonight?
Will you stay alive?
Dive, don't be afraid
Follow the seamaid
Jump, you won't regret
