

Sisters In Melancholy

Domina Noctis

I don't have much to say
I don't have tears to cry anymore
But inside I still mourn for you
Things change when you're so far
And my silence hurts both me and you
'Cos I know that I'll never be the same

Can you hear me
Don't you sleep sister
Braid your hand with mine in melancholy
Along with me and my weakness

I can't forget but I can't forgive
I can't go on but I can't leave
You know it's not easy to me to give up to you
Though I have to
I have to let you go

Why it cannot come back
The time when we were sisters
Happiness drown in misunderstanding
Pride and jealousy
