

The Mask

Domina Noctis

Please say my name once again
You know shy words make me fall
And no one knows that we can
Be lovers just for tonight

There's something I can't define
But I just don't want to hide
You'll see, my eyes they can't lie
And with my love I'll defy you...

There is still me behind this mask
And the animal inside
Is scratching my skin
With my nails

Angel of temptation burning in flames
In a bed covered with roses and thorns
We'll lie together, we will lie
It was so hard to realize that I'm not Afraid, I'm not ashamed, how about you?

There is still me behind this mask
And the animal inside
Is scratching my skin
With my nails
