

Defenders

Domine

We are the Royal Guard of Steel
We are The Loyal and Strong
We are The Knights of The Sacred Sound
We are forevermore
We will stand by the Oath we swore
Long ago when the Gods chose their knights

We are the Keepers of the Flame
We feel no shame or fault
We are the Holy Soldiers of Iron
We are forevermore

We will stand by the Oath we swore
Long ago when the Gods chose their knights

We are Strong, We are the Ones
We will stand for what we believe
And forever we will be

We are Strong, We are the Ones
Fighting for Truth and Honour
And forever we will be
Metal Defenders

Fight, we will fight
We will fight forevermore
Fight, we will fight
We will fight forevermore

We will stand our ground, we are glory bound
We will ride through the darkness with honour and pride
Together we unite, you must choose your side
We will crush all the infidels with our might
