

Rising From The Flames

Domine

I've seen the signs of fate fortold in ancient rhymes the screams of a million souls the king rise from his grave Coursing through our veins the vengeance of a thousand years
we bring judgment
the burning reward
the gift of pain

On burning wings we ride flames are streaming from our eyes
empires fall as we pass by from the ashes the phoenix will rise

Swords are raised on high and the flames are rising higher scorching the sky with our spite We are rising from the flames

From the gates of eternal damnation sailing the lake of fire raging warriors raging fire heel now walks the land

will rise
