

Time

Don Carlos

Tomorrow is another day as the clock keeps tickin'
away, time is so precious and so I say.
Tomorrow is another day as the clock keeps tickin'
away, time is so precious and so I say.

Wake up to meet the rising sun, get on your feet don't be no slum
Rollin' stone (not sure what he's saying here sorry. it sounds like gotta go mas or something) Move to slow and you pay the * ("cause" I think)
Hear me when I say..."yeah yeah" when I say... "yeah yeah"

Cuz tomorrow is another day as the clock keep tickin'
away time is so precious and so I say
Tomorrow is another day as the clock keep tickin' away,
time is so precious and so I say

Lets make it, when the sun is shining, get up lets do something creative
Don't waste your time away or you won't see the day

Tomorrow is another day as the clock keep tickin' away,
time is so precious and so I say
