How Do You Tell Someone

Don Gibson

How do you tell someone you don't care how do you say I don't l ove you Win the heart that you're tellin' is so good and true and loves no one but you And how could my heart be made of stone oh why must this be I'm unable to give my love to one who gave her life for me And how could my heart be made of stone