YOU CAN'T LAUGH (AT A FOOL)

WRITER DON GIBSON

Yes I really thought that you would be mine forever

I didn't ever really think that you would leave me ever

I thought that true love was to yes I trusted in you

But I was wrong now I know it's too late

Now we're through and you can't laugh you can't laugh at a fool

Makes no difference to you you don't care what I do

And they say that's the way I should be

But I can't be that way I don't know any better

I still love you it's true and I will forever

I thought that true love was to yes I trusted in you

But I was wrong now I know it's too late

Now we're through and you can't laugh you can't laugh at a fool

Makes no difference to you...

Yes and you can't laugh you can't laugh at a fool
