YOU CAN'T LAUGH (AT A FOOL) WRITER DON GIBSON Yes I really thought that you would be mine forever I didn't ever really think that you would leave me ever I thought that true love was to yes I trusted in you But I was wrong now I know it's too late Now we're through and you can't laugh you can't laugh at a fool Makes no difference to you you don't care what I do And they say that's the way I should be But I can't be that way I don't know any better I still love you it's true and I will forever I thought that true love was to yes I trusted in you But I was wrong now I know it's too late Now we're through and you can't laugh you can't laugh at a fool Makes no difference to you...
