

Lost In Your Eyes

Don Johnson

Light from a window
Cold dark and black
Sound from a dream
I was hypnotized
I was paralyzed I could hardly speak

And baby Baby You never realized
That I could have stood there lost in your eyes
Stood there waiting And not realized
Love isnt easy It isnt always kind
I could have stood there
Lost in your eyes

Guess I understand it
Guess I sort of have to
Guess I kind of see
Just because it could have been
Doesnt mean it had to Ever mean a thing

And baby Baby I could say it all the time
That I could have stood there lost in your eyes
Stood there waiting
And not realized
Love isnt easy
It isnt always kind I could have stood there
Lost in your eyes

And you know sometimes I wonder
Yes I wonder I really really do
Ya yes I do
Just because it helps me
Though sometimes it scares me
Guess you wouldnt know
No you wouldnt know

Guess I understand it
Guess I sort of have to
Guess I kind of see
Just because it could have been
Doesnt mean it had to
Ever mean a thing

And baby Baby You never realized
I could have stood there lost in your eyes
Stood there waiting
And never realized
Love isnt easy It isnt always kind
I could have stood there
Lost in your eyes

You know I could have stood there
Ya ya ya ya Lost in your eyes
Lost in your eyes
Lost in your eyes
Lost in your eyes
Lost in your eyes

Lost in your eyes
