

Love Roulette

Don Johnson

Gotta be careful how you play this game.
One false move could leave your heart in pain.
I'm no stranger to this fate, you know it's true.
And baby, I really wanna be with you.

Falling in love can be dangerous.
Make you anxious, playing love roulette.
Falling in love can be dangerous.
Make you crazy, playing love roulette.

When love starts rollin', it can thrill you to the bone.
Fill you full of feelings you thought long-gone.
But you better remember, the game was only made for two.
You got to play it true, or you can surely lose.

Falling in love can be dangerous.
Make you anxious, playing love roulette.
Falling in love can be dangerous.
When you gamble with your heart, it's anybody's bet.

Love's had its way with me before, a time or two.
Always leaving me bleeding, lonely and blue.
But darlin' if you give to me your sweet love and kisses.
Would you promise not to bash my heart to bits and pieces?

Falling in love can be dangerous.
Make you anxious, playing love roulette.
Falling in love can be dangerous.
Make you anxious, playing love roulette.
Falling in love can be dangerous.
Make you anxious, playing love roulette.
Falling in love can be dangerous. Make you anxious, playing love roulette....
