Endless Sleep

Don Williams

The night was dark, rain falling down. Looked for my baby, she's nowhere around. Traced her footsteps down to the shore; Afraid she's gone forever more.

I looked at the sea and it seemed to say: I took your baby from you, away. I heard a voice crying in the deep: Come join me baby, in my endless sleep.

Why did we quarrel, why did we fight? Why did I leave her alone tonight? That's why her footsteps ran into the sea; That's why my baby is gone from me.

I looked at the sea and it seemed to say: I took your baby from you, away. I heard a voice crying in the deep: Come join me baby, in my endless sleep.

Ran in the water, heart full of fear. There in the breakers, I saw her near. Reached for my baby, held her to me. Stole her back from the endless sleep.

I looked at the sea and it seemed to say: You took your baby from me, away. My heart cried out, she's mine to keep. I saved my baby from that endless sleep.
