

Mistakes

Don Williams

People tell me, boy you're crazy
Some people say that I'm nuts
For trying to get back together with you baby
They say that once is enough.

I never should have left you
'Cause now I need you
Sometimes it happens that way
I come back like a fool who's believing
No matter what they might say.

I don't want to hear another word
Don't need your well thought out advice
Though I thank you all for being kind
I can make mistakes, myself just fine.

I've got a good friend
Who knows my trouble
He thinks I'm wasting my time
Go out and have some fun
She's not the only one
But I can't leave her behind.

So, I don't want to hear another word
Don't need your well thought out advice
Though I thank you all for being kind
I can make mistakes, myself just fine.

I don't want to hear another word
Don't need your well thought out advice
Though I thank you all for being kind
I can make mistakes, myself just fine.

No, I don't want to hear another word
Don't need your well thought out advice
Though I thank you all for being kind
I can make mistakes, myself just fine...
