

Now and Then

Don Williams

Now and then
A loser wins
Gets a winning hand
Now and then.

Once in awhile
The angels smile
And someone's life
Turns out just right.

Now and then
Dreams come true
When someone like me,
Is loved by someone like you.

So many times,
I just couldn't help believing
I'd never find,
The one to make my life worth living.

But now and then
Miracles still happen
Oh, I know they do
'Cause I found you.

It'll always be
A mystery
That in all this world
You chose me.

It's good to know
That now and then
It all turned around
And there's really a rainbow's end.

Now and then
Dreams come true
When someone like me,
Is loved by someone like you.

So many times,
I just couldn't help believing
I'd never find,
The one to make my life worth living.

But now and then
Miracles still happen
Oh, I know they do
'Cause I found you.

So many times,
I just couldn't help believing
I'd never find,
The one to make my life worth living.

But now and then
Miracles still happen

Oh, I know they do
'Cause I found you...
