

Time On My Hands

Don Williams

Every day of my life until forever
Was spoken for when you looked at me
Now that you're gone my life goes on
But all of the heart is out of me

And I've got time on my hands
You on my mind, nowhere to spend all my love
And I'll be here waiting if you ever change your plans
'Cause you own this time on my hands

Every morning I see the future before me,
Empty, as endless as the sky.
I should begin to build life again
But I just can't find a reason why.

And I've got time on my hands
You on my mind, nowhere to spend all my love
And I'll be here waiting if you ever change your plans
'Cause you own this time on my hands
