

You've Got A Hold On Me

Don Williams

Another lonely night
And every passing hour
Makes it harder to fight
I'm still under your power.

You've got a hold on me
Won't let me be
You're not even here
I'm in love with the memory.

Another morning alone
I don't even remember
How many battles you've won
And I can't even surrender.

You've got a hold on me
Won't let me be
You're not even here
I'm in love with the memory.

Another day with the blues
Don't know how I'll get through it
I've got your memory to lose
And I don't know how to do it.

You've got a hold on me
Won't let me be
You're not even here
I'm in love with the memory.

You've got a hold on me
Won't let me be
You're not even here
I'm in love with the memory...
