Dondria

I don't even know if you understand how hot that you got me you got me
I don't even know if you understand how hot that you got me you got me
I don't even know if you understand how hot that you got me
Here we go

I'm melting like butter on toast
Ain't nothing in this world I want more than you
Right here tonight I wanna see the moon in your eyes
So I need you to hold me like a fresh dollar bill
Won't ya come take control and give me something to feel
I won't complain I'll let you do what you please
Cause I'm coming apart at the seams
Oh boy

You've got me
102 degress
Boy the way you're touching me
I'm past the boiling point
Like a blazing fire
Every move raising high
Tonight I wanna touch the sky
Take me past the boiling point

I'm all in like Texas Hold 'Em
Sitting on cloud 10
Your love got me twisting
Like a... I'm holding position
Is this what you like baby
So wear me out like a new pair of jays
Won't ya slip on my body like some new lingerie
Oh boy you say you like it slow oh kay kay kay
Got me coming apart at the seams
Oh boy

You've got me
102 degress
Boy the way you're touching me
I'm past the boiling point
Like a blazing fire
Every move raising high
Tonight I wanna touch the sky
Take me past the boiling point

Anything you want from me
Now's the time to ask it
You'll receive
Baby I'm burning like a blue flame
All because of love
Anything you want from me
Now's the time to ask it
You'll receive
Ohh

You've got me

102 degress

Boy the way you're touching me

I'm past the boiling point

Like a blazing fire

Every move raising high
