

Runaway Mixed

Dondria

If you leave your girl I'll leave my man
Let's pack our bags we don't need no plans
Let's runaway
To another place
Grab your things I'll grab mine too
Your girl can't do it like I do
Let's runaway
Let's runaway

She can't (she can't)
Do it like I do
I bet you if you sit down and compare
No ones better for you (no one's better for you)
Than me (than me)
Can't you see
Suga
You been hurting for too long
Why you let her do you wrong
You see how it's supposed to be
When you leave and come with me (oh baby)

If you leave your girl I'll leave my man
Let's pack our bags we don't need no plans
Let's runaway
To another place
Grab your things I'll grab mine too
Your girl can't do it like I do
Let's runaway
Let's runaway

You told me you think that she's cheating
But you afraid to pack up and leave and Start brand new
Make plans to
Forget everything you been through
But she's the one that's breaking your heart
I promise if you leave her I'll never part
From you
Make sure that you'll be loved like
She has never done you before

If you leave your girl I'll leave my man
Let's pack our bags we don't need no plans
Let's runaway
To another place
Grab your things I'll grab mine too
Your girl can't do it like I do
Let's runaway
Let's runaway

Kick dude to the left I am mr. right
We could do what you like cruise or flight
You choose whatever you in the mood for
So when your man asks what's the attitude for
Tell him you met mac and he's so cool
And you don't mean to be rude but he's old news
And by my side you can come and stay love

We ain't luda and mary but we could runaway love

If you leave your girl I'll leave my man
Let's pack our bags we don't need no plans
Let's runaway
To another place
Grab your things I'll grab mine too
Your girl can't do it like I do
Let's runaway
