

Saving Myself

Dondria

Plenty boys I know wanna be my friend, but all I think about is When is the next time I'm a see you again, I said all I think a bout is you

Way that I feel every time I'm with you
Way that I really hope I make you feel too
I can have any boy I want, but I'm saving myself for one

I know I shouldn't be thinking like this, I'm saving myself, I' m saving myself for you I know this ain't the time, but I'm sure that I'm saving myself
, I'm saving myself for you.
See I got so many boys around the world that wanna love me, but I won't let em' cause I know what I wanna do It's true, and I don't care what nobody thinks, I'm saving myse lf for you.

I'm not just saving myself for the kisses and the good times (I
'm saving my)
I'm saving myself for the way we'll work it out, when it ain't right; I'm saving myself I'm saving myself for the day, you say that; you've made your c hoice and I'm the only one that you wanna give your love to Baby cause it's true that I'm...

Saving myself for our very first dance, saving myself for the v ery first chance I get to show you how I do romance Boy, I think by now you should see I'm saving myself in every w ay
Saving myself both night and day
Saving myself, baby I will wait
I don't care how long it takes
