

You're The One

Dondria

i don't believe, we were put together not to be together and i don't believe, there's anyone out there, that can love me any better
i don't believe, that you know how much i miss seeing your
smile
of course we had our ups and downs, but i gotta have you
me because i feel it all over my body (feel it all over my body)

i dream about you when i sleep
boy(yeah)
you're the one for me, you're the one
all the signs say that ever since the day that we laid eyes on
other baby you're the one for me you're the one you're the one for
me (hey)

much i melt every time i smell your scent boy -- and i dont believe (i don't believe), i got myself in this predicament i'm sorry ( i'm so sorry), for everything i ever did wrong
i'm sorry (i'm so sorry) and i'm begging you begging you baby oh baby oh baby
please come back home

i feel it all over my body i dream about you when i sleep (yeah)

when i lay in my bed at night I'm hoping and pray that you feel the same way i do deep down inside.... inside and that feeling you just can't control it makes you wanna just call me and tell me how much you really miss me

makes you wanna call me and say that you can't wait to hold and kiss kiss me me all over

i feel it all over my body (heyyy)
