

My Apology

Donell Jones

Oh why Oh why Oh why you let me do the things I do
But you never did it to me?
I can't believe that I could treat my baby so uncool
All she ever wanted was me
Many nights I watched her cry from silly sh-t I put her through
Like having females calling the crib
Wish that I could just rewind all the years I hurt ya boo

That's the Gemini in me
Got split personalities
It's Dr. Jeckyll and Hyde with me
I'm a provider G
Bills paid on the first you see
Keep a pocket full of currency
You said you'd never leave
Now you tryna turn ya back on me
Understand you got no trust in me
But I'll change for you
If you promise that you'll stay with me
Please accept my apology

Looking back I know that I physically neglected you
Cuz we wasn't having no sex
Many years screamed and yelled, ranting and raving like a fool
Mentally abusing you
I hope it's something left inside cuz girl I wanna be with you
Got to know I'm willing to change
Wish that I could just rewind all the years I hurt ya boo

Babyyy
That's the Gemini in me Gemini in me, Gemini in me
Don't you leave
