

No More Movies

Donkeyboy

There she goes, once again. I am all by myself.
And all I know, all I want, she's the one.
There she goes, out the door.
Blowing kisses no more.
I swear that I, never knew, what to do.

This time I won't let it beat me down'
And no more movies and her favorite song

There she goes, made the call.
She's got somebody new.
And all I know, all I got, she's the one.
There she goes, once again. I am all by myself.
I swear that I, wanted to, make it up to you.

But I know what it feels like.
This time I won't let it beat me down'
Cause I know that I'm doing all right.

And I'm crushed by the moonlight.
And no more movies and her favorite song
But I know what it feels like, all right.
(No more movies)

(This time)
(This time)

But I know what it feels like.
This time I won't let it beat me down'
Cause I know that I'm doing, all right.

And I'm crushed by the moonlight.
And no more movies and her favorite song
But I know what it feels like, all right.
(No more movies)

This time I won't let it beat me down'
And no more movies and her favorite song
This time I won't let it beat me down'
And no more movies and her favorite song
