

Don't Ever

Donna Lewis

don't ever turn your back on all your dreams don't ever lose the hunger don't ever change your patience and your pain that wouldn't be you without me don't ever be still be reckless evermore don't stay up all night without me don't overdo the suffering in vain don't ever dance in fountains without me and i'm laying on your shoulder and the need is love

and it's you
I talk to all night
laughing out loud at me
you
holding me up to the moon and I love you enough that it's true I won't ever be without you don't ever forget all about the words don't ever stop believing don't ever rest without me in your place don't ever grow old without me and I'm needing your shoulder to cry my last tear

holding up to the moon and i love you enough that it's true
you
