

Silent World

Donna Lewis

If I could put you, on top of a cake I would ice you
And keep you, wrapped up in a box to be near you
If I could, I would

If I could touch you, again with my fingers so gently
If I could feel you, breathing in time next to me
But the silence surrounds me
Flashing memories of you riding with the moon that night
I never had the chance to say goodbye, goodbye

Lost forever, lost to another world
Gone forever, but remembered in our thoughts, you are

I could open, the heavens above I'd be with you
If I could hold you, again in my arms I would tell you, that I love you
