

You to Me

Donna Lewis

you
you're one of a kind forever leaving behind a little bit of your love a little piece of your clear sky turning on the lights in my heart and I

I wasn't aware you came in on the wind the way a beautiful dream comes back to you and I'm sure I've never felt this way before cos you to me

are all
you're everything but tragic everything that's good inside me
you
you're everything I need dissolving like a dream

do you see what i see changing all around you tell me who I am you tell me what i need you look at me straight on looking at me in some kind of sunstruck way that I can't quite explain

I'm gonna tell everybody I'm loving my life you give me all you have leaving a smile on my mouth it's what it's all about you know I really love love love you

you're all I ever need

changing all around us and i'm stepping out of me stepping into you

you give me love love love
love love love
I hold my breath I'm waiting waiting for your

love love love.....
