

We Expect You

Donnie McClurkin

We expect You, anytime, anytime
And how we wait to see Your blessed face
Lord, Your blessed face
And we expect You anytime

We expect You, anytime, anytime
And how we wait to see Your blessed face
Your blessed face
Lord we expect You, we expect You
Oh, we expect You anytime

So until You return, Lord, we will
Keep the fire burning
Keep the wheels turning
Keep the praises ringing in our souls

How our hearts are yearning
Just for Your returning
You promised to come and take us home
You promised to take us home, take us home

We expect You, we expect You
We expect You anytime
